

NAWBO FACTS

The National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) is the voice of America's 10.6 million women-owned businesses. Since 1975, NAWBO has helped women evolve their businesses by sharing resources and providing a single voice to shape economic and public policy. NAWBO is the only dues-based national organization representing the interests of all women entrepreneurs across all industries. Today the organization features chapters in almost every metropolitan area in the United States.

NAWBO Greater St. Louis Chapter members reside in the greater St. Louis, St. Charles, and surrounding counties in Missouri, and Southern Illinois metro areas. NAWBO Greater St. Louis members can access a variety of opportunities, products and services that will help their business achieve greater visibility, credibility, and profitability while building a strong network of other women owned businesses in the region.

NAWBO Greater St. Louis Chapter goals and mission are to:

- Strengthen the wealth creating capacity of its members
- Transform public policy and influence opinion makers
- Promote economic development
- Create innovative and effective changes in the business culture
- Build strategic alliances, coalitions, and affiliations
- Raise community awareness of NAWBO St. Louis

NAWBO's strength comes from the diversity of its membership – whose companies come in all business sizes from sole proprietorship to hundreds of employees; and includes nearly every business industry from construction, importers, and retailers to service providers in all areas of the country.
